

'Imagine Equality, Create Change'

by Sherrie Edgar

Women fight for people

My sight sees the need of active change

Women conceive politics as order, but this disorder does not broker my want for equality

Politics only reflects those in power

The lack of black female representation, creates the lack of representation

Women's motivation, is to defend Women to be heard

Brown Women cause change

I am prepared

Validate my politics

Women's race identity cannot be lost

We are equipped to serve, create, be powerful and integral

Women exceed men to educate, engineer, laws of society and human rights

Offering safety and nourishment, we economise and strategize

Women with darker skin are not oppositions, subjected archetypes, vagility and othered

You have more to lose when politics is compromised

Protect Women's rights, history shows us the effect of errors

Fill the gap, sanitary tax, motherhood, pay, health, home, working rights, ownership, well-being, legal aid, business

Women vote, protest, talk, shout, sign, signal, vigil, write

We are a cannon for greater social mobility and greater care

Women of ethnic backgrounds understand our diverse rainbow

Humanity comes into everything and everyone

Racialised Women change the world, traditional to direct experience

Our staircase leads to gate kept doors

Manoeuvre information, that structure

I Woman leader, create change for many
