

The projections on this window are part of

responding to the theme,

'Feel Connected, Get Creative'

a series of events preparing for City of Culture 2021.

wWw is curated by Glenn Noble and Adrian Palka (Coventry University) in collaboration with Richard Wallace (University of Warwick) and in partnership with Theatre Absolute.

The projections aim to bring other places, unusual performances and simple fun to the shopping streets of Coventry, with a particular "Hello from Poland" – "Dzien Dobry z Polski."

Live streamed elements include:

- Palace of Culture and Science, Warsaw - Live Webcam
- Oder Tour (Performance & Portrait of German/Polish border zone) - Wolfram Spyra & Roksana Vykalk
- Polish Mountains Tour (Memories of Cov) – Karolina Chrzanowska

Contributing artists and films include –

- Cartwheels in Norfolk – Ela Palka Lindsay
- Lockdown Leeds / Permitted Exercise – Jackie Slater
- Pentaplex (for Voice and Piano) - Mark Bowler
- Blackbird (Movement from Kenliworth) - Katy Coe
- Go on Boy! – Coventry Glenn Noble (with Woody)
- Layers of Separation (Norfolk Film from the air) – Martin Bastow

With thanks to the contributing artists, Craig Goddard, Theatre Absolute, Coventry Creates, and Coventry2021